THE DION & SONS STORY

Dion & Sons has a rich history in Southern California, known for industry-best service and quality products delivered with integrity in all transactions. In 1930, Amber Lubricants was established, supplying fuels and oils to Southern California's burgeoning oil well drilling industry.

Meanwhile, L.T. Sawyer, founded in 1948 as a division of Shell, operated in an area known as Oil Alley since 1930. Today, Sawyer has been rebranded as Dion & Sons, merging with its long-standing sister company.

These stations represent just some of the major brands that are brand-wide-accepted (meaning that you can use your card at all these stations nation-wide).

There are many other stations in the Fuelman network, but acceptance varies on a site-by-site basis. You can find a full list of all Extended Network sites on the Site Locator.
